Plan to Improve Hospital Building.

Plans for the W. W. Massie Memorial Hospital, which will be located in the old G. G. White property in White addition, will be completed next week by Architect H. L. Rowe, of Lexington, who was selected by the trustees of the hospital to draft plans fort the improvement of the building which is to be used as a hospital.

Extensive improvements are planned for the building, and when completed, it will be one of the most modern institutions of the kind in the state of Kentucky. The will of the late Mrs. W. W. Massie provided that her late residence at the corner of Vine street and Scott avenue, be turned over to the committee appointed by the city council, to be used as a hospital, but Mr. W. C. Massie, of this city, desiring to retain the residence, purchased the building and grounds, and the money derived from the purchase used to buy the White

It is planned to erect a three story addition to the present structure which will be used as a separate ward for colored people and besides this many other improvements are under consideration. The large dining room, which during the life of Mr. White, one of the wealthiest men of the county, was handsomley finished and elaborate in its appointments will be divided into two rooms, and over the veranda which runs the full length of the building a sleeping room will be constructed. At present the building contains twenty-three rooms and the proposed improvements will add many more. A hydraulic elevator, of the latest and most improved pattern will be installed.

If the plans submitted by Architect Rowe are accepted by the trustees of the hospital, work upon the improvements will begin at once and pushed to an early completion.

Franklin District Knocked Out.

The Kentucky Court of Appeals by a decision handed down Wednesday knocked out the legislative act creating a seperate district of Franklin county, taking it from the old Fourteenth judicial district. The opinion was delivered by Chief Justice Hobson, Judges Winn and Lassing dissented from the ruling.

The question of the legality of the act was raised by Attorney, James A. Scott, of Franklin county, and by Circuit Judge Robert L. Stout who had moved from Woodford county to Frankfort and claimed to be judge of the new pistrict.

The court says the constitution laid down the rules under which judicial districts may be created, and they must be followed; that when the legislature acts under Section 138 of the Constitution it should not create a district of a single county unless it evidence that the population is sufficient to fill the constitutional requirement, but though it may have the evidence, still, if the fact does not exist the court will inquire 1 nto the facts and will not sustain the act if in violation of the Constitution.

The court says that while great weight will be give the lesislate finding where the facts are doubtful, where the facts are clear the court must do its duty and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution.

Notice to the Public.

Ed. Rice's Funeral Largely Attended.

The funeral of Mr. Edward Rice, which took place Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, at the residence, near North Middletown, was attended by a large concourse of people from various parts of Bourbon county. Friends and relatives from Lexington, Winchester, Millersburg, and Carlisle were present.

About twenty-five Confederate veterans were in attendance, seated on the ans were in attendance, seated on the long veranda, and as the coffin bearing the remains of their beloved comrade was carried to the waiting hearse, they ranged themselves in double file along the walk.

Elders J. W. Ligon and L. H. Reyn. olds paid a high tribute to the Christian character of Mr. Rice, and voiced the sympathy of a host of friends for the family in their bereavement.

Among those from Prais who went to pay their last respects to their departed friend were Judge Denis Dundon, Hon. C. M. Thomas, Squire L. J. Fretell, Mr. Pearce Paton, Judge E. B. January, wife and daughter. Jailer Joseph Farris, Attorney C. Arnsparger, Dr. C. J. Clark, Dr. Frank Fithian, Mr. Jas. McClure, Attorney John Williams, Mrs. W. R. Scott, Mr. Jas. McDonald, Col. E. F. The Beef Trust.

Is the beef trust bigger than the United States government? Made bold by its victory, after a nine years' debusting suit"started against it by former President Roosvelt, this trust Established 1881-30 Years of Conhas boosted meat prices to the highest figure ever known in this country, not even excepting war times. The trust Published Every Tuesday and Friday gives "a shortage in the live stock supply" as its reason of increasing

That this excuse is only a subterfuge is shown by the late report of the government bureau of statistics, which shows that instead of a shortage in the live stock supply, there has been a steady increase.

"The supply of cattle at the seven principal Western markets in April was greater than in any April in the last decade," this report says. "The number of cattle shipped to these markets last month was greater than for the same month a year ago by thirteen per cent., and greater than the same period for 1910 by forty per cent.

There wa a proportionate increase in the supply of hogs and sheep, also, and that the weight of these animals was up to the standard of former years is indicated by the fact that the supply of dressed meat now on hand in the packers' warehouse is greatly in excess of the amount held there last Extortionate Trusts.

A thousand million dollars a year is This report shows that the beef trut the amount that the protected inhas made up its mind to force the con- dustries wring from the American sumer to pay the cost of the nine people annually, over and above a fair years' suit it has just won. The fact that those industries have a monopoly

Senator Hitchcock's speech fairly bristled with figures, taken from the most reliable and authentic sources, to back up each of his facts.

The steel trust alone gets $300,000 .ing troubled with constipation. Cham- 000 annually in excess of a fair profit. This monopoly does an annual busiany unpleasant effect. Give them a ness of three thousand millions of dollars a year, and it is estimated that without the tariff, the steel trust would have to sell its products for ten per cent. less than it now sells them, and ten per cent. of three thousand million is three hundred thousand. Every man, woman and child of the 92,000,000 in this country then, pays an annual tribute of $3.50 each to the trust, over and above what they would from steel.

What is the effect of this extortion? One effect has been to create a horde of mushroom millionaires. Another effect has been a gradual centralization of the nation's wealth into a few hands, with a consequent intensifying of the struggle for existence among the masses. Still another effect is seen in the vast number of strikes. Within the last twenty-five years 36,756 strikes have been declared in this country, most of them for higher wages. These strikes have involved a total of 6,000,000 workrs, who, with their families, were driven to hunger and suffering. While a the steel trust enjoys a comolete monopoly, due to the tariff, it finds time to compete with other nations for steel trade outside of the United States. Last year the steel makers of this country sold $230,000,000 worth of steel abroad, in direct competition with the steel makers of Europe, thus proving conclusivly that tariff on steel is not needed to "protect American "workmen", since American workmen do not get any more than their fellows abroad. The 8th Street, tariff is simply a barrier put up to enable the steel trust to gouge millions out of the home consumer. And in the meantime, the Democratic bill to lower the tariff on steel, having passed the House, lies in the Republican Senate, still unacted upon.

WOMEN TAKE NOTICE!

A man cannot understand the torture and suffering many women endure uncomplainingly. If the majority of men suffered as much pain and endured with patience the weakening sicknesses that most women do, they would ask for immediate sympathy and look for a quick cure. Many women have been saved from a life of misery and suffering by turning to the right remedy-Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription-a remedy which is safe to take because containing no narcotics, alcohol or injurious ingredients. It is an alterative extract of roots, made with pure glycerin, and first given to the public by that famous specialist in the diseases of women—Dr. R. V. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y.

MRS. LIZZIE M. HESSHEIMER, of Lincoln, Neb., 529 "C" St., cays: "I send a testimonial with much pleasure so that some suffering woman may know the true worth of your remedies. I was a great sufferer from female troubles but after taking one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which a friend advised me to take, I found myself very much improved. After taking three more bottles, and using two boxes of Dr. Pierce's Lotion Tablets, I found myself on the road to recovery. I was in poor health for five years but now I am cured. now I am cured.

"I hope all women suffering from female weakness will give Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a fair trial.

By a unanimous vote of the city council last night the tax levy for the city of Paris for the year of 1912 was fixed at $1.30 on each $100 worth of property in the city to meet the expenses for the ensuing year, a reduction of 5 cents, from the levy for the year of 1911. the levy is divided as Library fund,$.05

Last year the public school re-ceived a sum of $11,000 and the sum which will go into that fund this year will be shout $15,000. The deficit was caused by the installation of a filtering plant at the school and other expenses, which brought the amount to about $1,100. The addition of the 5 cents added to the tax for school purposes is estimated to realize a sufficient fund to meet the demand made upon the treasury. Councilman Hin-ton reported that the Finance Committee had gone over the Assessors books and found that the total assessment of the city property amounted in the aggregate to a sum of $3,624,906. The Finance Committee made a report upon the work assigned to it in regard mittee after considering the proposition could not see the wisdom of such a move if a satisfactory arrangement could be made with the Paris Gas and Electric Co. to furnish light at a reasonable price, and the bids submitted by the company were rejected. The City Clerk was ordered to advertise for new bids.

J. T. Hinton

By J. E. WAGGONER, of the I H C Service Bureau A great deal has been said in a jocular way about the razor-back hog and his sun-splitting abilities, but it is a very encouraging fact that he is rapidly becoming extinct. His happy hunting grounds consist now of only a small part of the total hog producing area. He has been succeeded by the more domesticated and more highly developed type of hog, which someone has properly dubbed ""the mortgage raiser." Many farmers can easily attribute the possession of homes, wealth and all that goes therewith, to the domesticated hog. His place in the scheme of industrial progress has been won not by any unusual trait, but is largely due to the fact that his profitableness is a result of instinctive economical habits. By nature he seems to fit into the whole scheme of farming as a utilizer, to the best possible advantage, of many of the farm products that would otherwise be a

We can draw a very valuable lesson from this all but artistic animal. whose only language is his squeal of disapproval and his sturdy grunt of satisfaction. He saves where others waste, and makes his living by rooting around _ sometimes in places where wanted, sometimes not. If there is anything within reach that he likes he usually finds it and proceeds to make good, use of the opportunity without any manifest concern or excitement. He seems to make it his business to look after small things, even the holes in the fence if the outside looks more inviting.

Profitable farming is becoming more and more a business proposition in which it is necessary to look after the small things and to use to the best advantage every opportunity to produce more economically. The best and most profitable farmers have adopted systems of farm accounting, or, in other words, they have become bookkeepers, - have kept such complete records as to enable them to determine which fields were profitable and which were not. To begin with, it is not absolutely necessary to follow up all little details, but it is a good plan to do so as completely as possible.

If we were to go into a manufacturing plant, one of the first things to impress us would be the system of doing things and the strict principles of economy that are followed. All products that can be used for other purposes are saved, properly stored. and used when the time comes. At the end of each month, and possibly each day, the manager knows the exact status of affairs-the amount of stock on hand, and the quantity of finished product ready for the market. Every part of a great machine is humbered and each must be accounted

If the same unsystematic methods were practiced in factories as are used on some farms, they would soon lose their identity with the world's progress, and become nothing but idle monuments to some man's failure. On careful consideration it is plain to see that with farming it is as important, if not more so, to keep definite and strict records of all expenditures of time, money and labor.

The space alloted to this article will not permit a detailed explanation of all the possibilities of an accounting system on the farm and what it will accomplish, but carefully kept records will be an index finger to point the farmer to loop holes through which the profits are now slipping. He would know which are the profitable fields; which are the most profit producing crops; which cows were boarders, that he might at the end of the season sell such animals to pay their board bills; he would know whether he was utilizing his horse power to the best possible advantage. In this connection it might be said that one of our foremost universities has just found that on a 160-acre farm, equipped with six splendid head of work stock, the average daily labor per horse was only a little over three hours for the entire year - a very small average labor record, indicating, a lack of efficiency.

Well kept accounts would enable us to determine the most satisfactory way of utilizing our dairy products. Experiment Stations have found that the cream separator reduces the loss of butter fat per cow to one-eighth that of the deep setting; one-twentyfirst of the shallow pan, and onethirty-third of the water dilution methods of cream separation. This shows that with the ordinary farmer who is milking ten average cows. figuring butter at the market price, will save more than the price of a separator in a single season. It not only is economical from the standpoint of obtaining more of the butter fat from the milk and other methods of cream separation, but makes it possible to utilize the milk before it has undergone the action of detrimental bacteria, to which it is very susceptible. Every farmer knows that milk as it comes fresh from the separator is in the most wholesome condition for feeding young pigs and young calves.

We hear a great deal said nowadays about maintaining the fertility of the soil. We all know that if grain is sold direct on the market that we deplete the fertility of the land very rapidly. The next best system of farming is stock raising for mean production, and the best of all systems for maintaining the productivity of the land, and at the same time reap profits therefrom, is dairying-not elling the whole milk but selling butter only.

Only by following some system of farm accounting can we know these things and be able to weigh in the balance the returns from each field from each kind of stock and from very farm operation.

The cream separator is one of the few things which specifically alleviate the drudgery of the woman whose lot has been cast on the farm. No better argument can be advanced for the increased sale and extended use of these machines. The man who places a separator on a farm has done something for humanity. In the city, when a housewife has cooked the meals, washed the dishes, and otherwise cared for a little flat with running water, steam heat, and electric lights, her whole duty toward man is done. Whereas, in the country a woman's work is never finished. Give the average farmer's wife only the housework to do and she would think she was on a vacation. It is this inequality of labor which starts country girls cityward. It is a lamentable commentary on the lack of chivalry in men but, in every rural community in which the writer has visited, the average head of the house always has money to buy labor-saving machines for himself and sons. He is thoroughly up-to-date in that, but when the patent washer, the fireless cooker, the carpet sweeper, the water system, and the lighting plant are advocated by the junior partner, funds are always low. This condition is not so bad as it used to be prosperity has opened the purse strings—but there are still opportunities for betterment. The cream separator is one of them. It fills a need felt by every woman from Leah down to the 1911 Ames co-ed, and even if it did not increase the farmer's dairy profit one iota, it is worth its weight in gold for the labor it saves the mothers, wives, and sisters on the farm.

ROTATION OF CROPS

Reply to a Michigan Correspondent

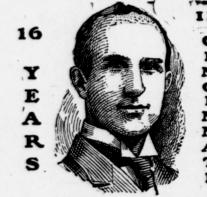

"I am growing sugar beets and my land seems to be decreasing in production. What rotation can I use?"

In some localities it has been found that beets do best following alfalfa, corn and small grains. A very good rotation is as follows: First, wheat: second year, beets; then clover for two years, last crop being plowed under; then potatoes, and the rotation repeated. If alfalfa can be grown in your locality it is a good plan to include this in the rotation.

In Montana the best rotation for beet raising is as follows: Wheat, clover, oats, sugar beets, barley and peas. In Utah the following rotation gives good satisfaction: First year, sugar beets; second year, peas and oats for forage; third year, sugar beets; fourth year, oats, seeded to alfalfa; fifth year, alfalfa, ed From the Introduction of "Tona Vita." Energy Can Be Restored.

In a recent interview one of the physicians who are introducing the remarkable new tonic "Tona Vita" to the American public had this to say:

they either wish to lie down and rest or rush after some excitement.

'Any one who has met a constant stream of nervous, debilitated people as I have since I began my present work, can tell a man or woman in this condition at a glance. I wish to emphatically state that the number of debilitated people in the larger

"The manner of living in the larger cities of the United States is such that perfect health is almost impossible; the human machine will not run true and strong day after day with its vitality continually being sapped by the constant nervous strain. Irregluar hours, hastily eaten food, the wear and tear and rush of city life, are largely responsible for the immense amount of dull, listless, half sick people of the present generation. Debility or a run down condition, as it is called, is everywhere. Half the people I see in street cars, restaurants, theatres, or on the street, are unmistakably in a debilitated condition, with their nerves in such a state that by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Paris Looses by Big Score to

Paris was defeated yesterday by Lexington by a score of 12 to 1. The game was a comedy of errors from the very start and the old story of the inability of the locals to connect with the ball. Given in detail the story of the struggle would require a column. The locals were at the mercy of Camnitz from the start, and Harold, who esseyed to pitch for Paris was driven from the mound somewhere about the seventh inning. Hits were numerous and errors in such rapid success, that in the absence of a rapid calculator, it is doubtful if it were in the power of the official scorer to keep them correct, and the same also applies to the error column, in which Paris is credited with seven, while the
